Mr. and Mrs. W. Swanson are at present visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Swanson and renewing acquaintances locally. Bill was employed in Strathmore a number of years ago, and was a famous light wrestler and all-around sport. For a number of years past he has been with the Brooks headquarters C. P. R. Department of Natural Resources.

The stampede held at Langdon last Wednesday, though not well attended, was a fine exhibition of bucking and racing.

Mayor Butler and F. R. Lilly were in Edmonton in the fore part of last week to represent the town in regard to the application of the Canadian Pacific Railway to have part of their land withdrawn from the town limits. The case was not heard, however, the Public Utilities Board being engaged in the hearing of a gas franchise for the city of Edmonton. The Strathmore application was therefore postponed till this week when it will be heard in Calgary.

Work commenced on the erection of the Strathmore Curling Rink on Monday morning, and a good start was made owing to Monday being a holiday and much volunteer labor available.

Councillor H. S. R. Chamberlain and Secretary W. G. Way attended the annual Municipal Districts Convention held in Calgary last week. Reeve Hansen and Councillor Wheeler also attended the sessions of the Convention.

The Alberta Legislature meets at Edmonton this week.

Mrs. A. D. Currie was visited by her mother, Mrs. Carter, and sisters, over the week-end.

Mr. Ed. Dickel returned last week from a visit to his home in Ontario, this being his first time back in thirty-two years. As might be expected, he found that there had been many changes in his absence.

Mr. A. Barry was home during the week-end from Carbon, where he has been employed at the mine for the past three months. Mr. and Mrs. T. Barry visited Carbon on Thanksgiving Day.

Many will regret to hear of the departure from Strathmore of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rawlings. Mr. Rawlings having been promoted to a position in the Calgary office C. P. R. Department of Natural Resources. Mr. Rawlings has been for some years chief clerk in the Strathmore Irrigation headquarters. He took an active part in various local activities, and held office for a year as Master of Strathmore Masonic Lodge. Mr. Rawlings' place will be taken by Mr. C. B. Lydiate, Calgary. Mr. and Mrs. Lydiate arrived in Strathmore last week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stanger on Friday, November 2nd, at the Holy Cross Hospital, Calgary. Mother and child are doing well.

Mr. C. Iverson has opened up the vaudeville establishment formerly conducted here by Messrs. West and Poches. The business has been closed up for some time owing to Mr. West's ill-health. Mr. Iverson is a returned man, and we bespeak for him the business of the public of the town and district. He has had several years experience in the business. It has been the policy of the Dominion Government to loan returned men with a disability, equipment by which they may engage in business, and re-establish themselves, but the co-operation of the people at a while is necessary if this help is to be effective.

Last week we stated that Strathmore G. W. V. A. were holding a smoker for returned men tonight. This was an error the date being Wednesday, November 15th. It is hoped to have every returned man in the district present, and a cordial invitation is extended.

The advertisement of horses to be sold by Mr. Alfred Anderson on November 12th should have read fifty horses instead of five, as stated in last issue.

Beneficial results have followed the campaign put on by the Union and Anglican Churches for larger church attendances. The fact that we have our churches sometimes incline us to underestimate their importance to the community, but if we realize the very important work they perform in keeping the community on the straight track we will support them, both by attendance and financially.

Next Saturday, November 11th, the day known throughout all the Allied countries as Armistice Day, is to be fittingly observed in Alberta and the other provinces of Canada by each and every person wearing a poppy, similar to those which grew in Flanders Fields. Due to the efforts of the Great War Veterans' Association in this province almost every district in Alberta has been organized for the campaign and a large supply of the "flower of remembrance" has been secured.

THIRTY-FIRST VETERANS DINNER
The Annual Re-Union and Dinner of the Thirty-First Veterans will be held in Calgary on Saturday, November 11th. This occasion always gathers a fine crowd of veterans of that celebrated unit and a good time is assured those who attend. Full particulars may be had by writing the secretary, F. Crumblin, P. O. box 988, Calgary, or when in Calgary phone 52627.

Red Cross Week
More than five hundred towns and villages have already been formally organized for the membership and finance campaign of the Red Cross to hold their first annual convention. Headquarters of the provincial branch announce that they will have organized between four and five hundred districts by the date for the opening of the campaign.

There are in Alberta 115 local organizations of the Red Cross, and 88 local Red Cross committees. These branches will handle the campaign in the districts where they are situated. In other districts at least 200 other women will be organized to take charge of the campaign and many, in fact, have already formed committees. This year organization is being accelerated by the cooperation of the people in the local centres and the efficient work of a trained staff at head office of the society in the province.

Requests for information and literature are constantly being received from all over the province. In the smaller centres which are not located on railways there is a particular demand for information with regard to the campaign organization. It is in these districts especially that the Red Cross has done a great and necessary work during the last few years.

Officials are pleased with the enthusiasm that is meeting their efforts. Reports are being received daily from towns and districts in all parts of the province in which it is stated that steps towards organization are being taken and a general air of optimism seems to prevail all over Alberta as to the success of the campaign.

Golfers are taking advantage of the fine weather, and the local links are being patronized heavily. The water hazard at the ninth hole is now a delight, the ice carrying the ball right across, instead of as an often occurs disappearing in the lake, as happened so often this summer to give the sough the name of "Lost Ball Lake."

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Krueger, of Weyburn, Minn., are at present visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dorrer.

An enjoyable concert was given by the McDonald Kiddies in the Memorial Hall on Friday evening, there being a good attendance. The dancing and acting of the children was very much admired.

Rev. J. H. Garden, Tabor, delivered a very interesting and enjoyable lecture in the Union Church on Monday evening, the title being "A Visit to Bonnie Scotland." Mr. Garden was able to talk from first-hand knowledge of his subject, having been born in the Land o' Cakes, and the views shown were very pretty and interesting.

Mr. J. C. Buckley, M. L. A., delivered an interesting address at an electors' meeting held here last night. A report of same will appear in next issue.

Beneficial results have followed the campaign put on by the Union and Anglican Churches for larger church attendances. The fact that we have our churches sometimes incline us to underestimate their importance to the community, but if we realize the very important work they perform in keeping the community on the straight track we will support them, both by attendance and financially.

Production of Butter

Western Provinces Engaging More Extensively in Mixed Farming

Figures giving the total quantity of dairy butter produced last year in Canada have recently been issued. These show that the total output for 1921 was 122,748,500 pounds valued at $45,392,000. This is an increase in quantity over the previous year of 11,654,962 pounds. Increased production is shown by all the provinces with the exception of Prince Edward Island, the largest proportionate increase, 26 per cent, being recorded by British Columbia. In order of dairying importance the provinces rank: Ontario, Quebec, Alberta, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia, British Columbia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. It is interesting to note that the three main provinces of Canada, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, which are generally supposed to be exclusive grain growing areas, are also large producers of dairy products. Mixed farming is being more and more taken up throughout Western Canada, as it is found to be a very profitable branch of agriculture.

American Lumbermen for B.C. The placing of shingles on the tree list has caused American manufacturers to look to British Columbia to establish their trade in winter transportation. One large manufacturer has announced that he will eventually displace four large mills now operating in Washington, and remove them to British Columbia. ## Perils of the Sea

Perry Efforts of Man Against the Mighty Forces of Nature

The loss within a period of three weeks of three military warships, leaving behind a wreckage of steel, is a reminder, as the tragedy of the Titanic was a startling reminder some years ago, that notwithstanding all that man has done, notwithstanding the mighty appliances that he has constructed, all his engineering efforts have failed to conquer the perils of the sea. Today, as ever, the words of Byron apply:

Roll on thou deep and dark blue ocean roll.

Ten thousand ships sail over thee in vain.

Some day, perhaps men will build ships that will be immune from the might of the ocean; but not yet. To day, whether it be in the air, or upon the sea, the struggle of man against nature, and especially against the insidious might of the very deep, remains without achievement. Perhaps, too, it is well. Perhaps it is far good that men should be occasionally reminded of a power beside which their achievements and their efforts still seem puny—From the Ottawa Journal.

Canada's Fire Loss

Property and Lives Sacrificed Through Ignorance and Carelessness

Last year $55,000,000 worth of insurable property was destroyed by fire. In addition to the heavy loss from fire, there were also losses from floods, about sixty per cent, of the fatalities occurring in the burning of dwelling houses, and the large number of the victims being children under twelve years of age. During the past decade, the property loss has been $250,000,000, apart from forest fires. In Canada a fire loss as great as the average loss to European countries. And constant investigation of fire in Canada has demonstrated that the chief causes of the enormous loss of property and the tragic loss of life are something else than ignorance and carelessness on the part of people.

"YOUR BUSINESS"

"And what is your business?" remarked one of those present to the latest arrival to join the group.

"Why, you might call me an insurance agent."

"Really," said Brown, "I'm an actuary with the Ajax. What's your company?"

"Well, you see," replied Mr. Newcomer, "I've a company of my own."

"Well, I am surprised. We seem to be entertaining a capitalist in our midst."

The parsing of these remarks had more or less focused the attention of the group on Newcomer. He, in turn, felt that an explanation was more or less necessary.

"Perhaps I'd better explain," he began, "You all carry insurance of many and various kinds. In fact, besides the regular fire, marine and life policies, with which we are all familiar, it seems as if we could protect ourselves against any kind of loss."

There has, however, been one field never touched by insurance. So, I spend my time working out protection for that field, which ranks in importance with life and fire and, as a matter of fact, it is sometimes more than either."

"Well, what is that Edginton said, spoke up one of the crowd."

"Markets," replied Newcomer.

"Simply that time and experience have proved that there is a policy which not only extends that field but actually protects against invasions on a manufacturer's market."

"Well, I'd like to buy such a protection," said Henry, the Boot and Shoe man; "what do you call this policy?"

"Regular payment continues advertisement," replied Newcomer.

"Humph!" Brown ejaculated, "that's another angle to an old story."

Take A Vacation This Winter

Reduced Fares!

The railway companies announce reduced fares to the Pacific Northwest this winter. This will be an added inducement for you to take your family and enjoy a vacation.

In the Pacific Northwest

OREGON, WASHINGTON AND BRITISH COLUMBIA

The trip to the Coast through the majestic mountains in their winter garb is worth the entire cost. The mild, temperate climate of the Coast is just what your family needs after a residence in the Prairie Provinces. A vacation spent west of the mountains amongst the glorious scenery, motoring on the scenic highways, or resting on the shores of the lakes and tea beaches, or playing golf on the evergreen fairways, will give new life and new vigor.

In a business way a vacation in British Columbia is well worth while, and it is possible you may find some place in which to locate if for any cause a change of residence is desired. Hotel, apartment-house and boarding-house rates are reasonable.

Write for illustrated booklet, or any information, to: Robert Colburn, Secretary, Pacific Northwest Tourist Association, maintained by government funds, I. C. Smith Building, Seattle, Washington.

Several districts in Alberta report a surplus of potatoes. The latest is from Vauxhall, where the farmers have raised a considerable surplus this year.

Special attention is directed to the advertisements on this page. Carland merchants are deservingly of your patronage. Each one takes a necessary place in the community and it would be extremely inconvenient if any one of them were absent.

Local Items
Briefly Told

Two young ladies who are spending the school term with us have gone for equine excursion. They have made a start to procure desirable mounts last Saturday and with help from employees of the C. P. R. and Union Bank, and aided by a pair of cats and a plate of salt rounded up a couple of lively ones. One of the girls had a fall from her horse so was "Huz de Coubar" for a day. The other young lady walked to school at a very slow pace.

A dance was held at Catholic School on October 27th. The attendance was not large but a good time was enjoyed by a citizen who spent. Music was supplied by John Mackie and son and daughter.

School Library

The school board are taking steps to procure a set of books from the library of the Department of Education of the University of Alberta. This will be appreciated by those who enjoy a little heavier reading than is procurable at the drug store library.

The local J. P. reports a clean slate in respect to local animals during the past week. The boys are regular in setting clever and it takes a quick sleuth to catch them at it.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cople visited Strathmore and Calgary during the weekend. Little Peter Cople accompanied them home after visiting at Strathmore. Peter finds it hard to judge just where his home is, he gets home comforts with his relatives in Strathmore as well as here.

Wheat Yield For 1922

Conservative estimate of the wheat crop to pass through the elevators this year is given as 350,000 bushels as against 370,000 last year and 350,000 in 1920. If the price was the same in 1920, Oh Boy!

Charlie Vantore denies that he is going to spend the winter in California. He says he spent a few days in Calgary and half the return from his crop, and although he needs a rest and a change he is going to take the rest here and keep the change.

The stretch of new sidewalk near the drug store and repairs further south are tremendous improvements now the street is approaching what the defective places might be hidden by snow and be the cause of accidents.

With a view of entertaining his friends a young man has placed an order for a saxophone and intends to learn to play it through a correspondence course. As this young man does the janitor work at the school it is suggested that one of the schools would be the best place to practice after school hours, of course.

Local Inventors

Mr. I. E. Stinson and Stanley Lyons are the inventors of a sanitary sanitary dispenser and have patented it in Canada and the U. S. This device, which is an excellent one, it is clouded with a small space like a tea pot. By the simple movement of tipping exactly a spoonful of sugar comes out. The sanitary advantage will at once be seen and also saving in space which occurs in restaurants where sanitary customers will use a visit upon causing a waste of the sugar tank. The inventors have already secured offers for an interest in the invention.

Tuesday afternoon, Halloween Day, was given up to play the jump games at the school under supervision of Miss Atkinson. A lot of superfluous energy was used up by the children running there to be more reasonable on Halloween night.

Les. Field spent a day in Calgary and on his return was visited by a number of his friends who cast enquiring glances at his grip. However he was as usual a good fellow.

Nick Stewart, who was employed in the store has resigned to take a position in Bassano. Bob Woodrow replaces him for the time being.

The telephone lines have been extended to take in a number south of Carlsland who were without a telephone. Amongst those benefiting are: Haidelberg, Henry, Martin's, Fairbairn's and Thacker's.

The P. B. Club meet on Thursday at the house of Mrs. G. Portney with a large attendance. Quite a number of business transacted. It was decided that the Club assist in putting cubs on the seats of the school vans and a shower arranged for Mrs. P. Cate, one of the members. Also it was decided to not join the club with the U. F. W. A. but leave it as a separate organization. Mrs. G. Field and Mrs. Portney served a delicious lunch which culminated a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart former residents of Carlsland, now of Calgary, paid a visit to Carlsland for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Whitney of Laramie are guests of Mrs. Whitney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick.

Mrs. R. Woodrow is quite seriously ill.

Mr. Maitz spent the weekend in Calgary.

In Days of Real Sport

(Communicated)
The world does not seem to please everyone, but all the same there are happy folk amongst them.

But the proud possessor of a second hand river seems to be the happiest especially the lonely bachelor who spends his long winter evenings with one. You will often hear him make this remark: "Evenings for pass time I take the job 'sit' for a trip to the city, Stobart or Baliva, which ever it may be" and on Sundays arise about 4:30 a.m. and spend the balance of the morning fixing up the "Ker". Shoe strings, hay wire and a few old tins cans answer the purpose well for that, also take a look over the cushions and find they need fixing up a bit. He finds that robbing his nights room of a comfort answers well for the repairing they need.

Then after spending an hour shaving and fixing the tie, decides "Sit" would like a ride in the new "Ker". Remembering the old Henry says he wants to where the watching eye and waiting heart is leaning on the gate post. Can't quite make the turn but gets over at the same. Rock are the day of real sport.

But on the other hand, he that some one is always taking the joy out of his and that Henry is not as well as quipped yet as this, also that Henry is not as easy fooled as she is, won't run on any old film, she won't even get him to take half and half, so taking the cheaper chocolate, as well as the higher priced ones. Try ones would be my suggestion. He likes it. He also finds old Dublin is better fitted for this trip as he stands when going through the gates. Says you don't need no bridle or blink the wheel, knows better than to back in to the fence and make him "shove" all over the country to get a train to pull him out. These are the days when a fellow needs a friend.

Another trouble old Henry has and that is his luggage. Won't give him what he needs and won't go out when he wants to propose.

Don't let this give of anything, make way. If it won't be there possibly you won't be single yet.

Yours for pure advice,
Karl Wright

Armistice Day

The days from AUGUST 5, 1918, up to 11th November 11, 1918, were great days. History was being made. The face of the world was being changed. Old established dynasties were tottering and falling. New countries were born, and old ones were extinguished. It is a privilege to have lived in those days. Historians will look back to the years 1914-1918 as turning points in the world's history.

The details of the conflict is still being swept up. The view is hazy yet, but we should always keep before our eyes the ideals for which the British Empire and other democracies entered the war.

Particularly on the anniversary of November 11th, the day on which the enemy forces acknowledged their defeat, and on which the same consent to speak, we should remember the men who gave their lives to make victory possible. To the men who were in the fighting lines at this time the Armistice comes as a respite from what looked the certain doom. They were prepared to go through with the conflict to the bitter end, but nevertheless, they were overwhelmingly glad when it was over.

The soldiers did their work. They did it well. Can we depend on the same spirit to animate the civilians in the work of reconstruction? The financial sacrifices made of us are bearing at present are part of the fruits of the war, but the sacrifices we may make of money are nothing to the sacrifice of life those heroes have done have made for us.

Another class who are yet anxious, but whose numbers are diminishing, are the men who are disabled, or partially so. It is to be feared that they are not getting the treatment they have the right to expect from their country. Evidence lately offered before the commission appointed to view the work of the Pensions Board proves this. These men should be able to live the rest of their lives in peace in the country of their birth.

Approximately half of the taxes collected in towns, cities, and municipal districts are for education. In Strathmore the cost per child per annum from five to six. In some country districts it is over $100 per child. Education is a necessity. Your children possibly do not realize it as much as you do, who are possibly struggling in a narrow, ill-defined, crowded, problem for which the world apparently has no solution at present.

If our children are to be free of the burdens which have fastened itself around so many of us, they will require objective and fine of it. Religion, moral and secular education. Many of our troubles are caused at present by people who apparently are well enough educated to take advantage of us to their financial benefit, but are not educated morally or religiously, which is the same thing to them to retain to take advantage of their fellow men to their own material gain. As taxes are heavy on them by having the highest value from them by having their children attend school regularly, and that they leave themselves fit to get the utmost benefit out of their school studies. The teachers cannot accomplish results without the cooperation of the parents.

All children cannot be brilliant scholars, but all will repay the cost of their tuition. Don't blame the teachers if your children are not making the progress you expect them to make. Probably the blame is yours. The teachers are the best the money available can buy. You have to cooperate with them to get results.

ing adopted and is already installed at several Strathmore where preliminary grading tests have been conducted and the necessary adjustments to expedite the grading and movement of hogs being made. Experimental work in co-operation for cooperative stockmen providing for the identification of individual farmer's hogs in its final stage and the Live Stock Commission will announce an approved identification mark simultaneous with the inauguration of grading.

not possible to relieve them from their obligations.

The widows and dependents of the dead also merit our consideration at this time and at all times.

Another class, a very numerous class, are the mothers and fathers of the boys who died. They treasure the remembrance of their boys to their hearts, and though they do not say much, they must feel that the traits of the soldiers they made of their own flesh and blood are not being garnered. They see the Kaiser, the arch-murderer of the war living in comfort and luxury, and celebrating his wedding. They see King Constantine stirring up trouble again, and almost leading the world into another war. They see the old processes of spoliation that were largely responsible for the last war will be carried on.

If democracy and freedom were worth dying for, they are worth living for. Let us pay more attention to the business of government, and explore the opportunities that are afforded us to make conditions better.

Our 27,000 Canadian soldiers who went to France over three and a half years ago with all reverence and humility remember them, especially on November 11th.

Help The Red Cross

During the present week the Red Cross of Alberta are conducting a campaign for funds to enable them to carry on their work. The Red Cross are doing in this province, a very necessary work, especially in the present circumstances of donation in which many in the province are unemployed. The Red Cross is doing a very valuable work in peace, as it did in war. Support them to the limit of your ability.

The Cost of Education

At the present time there are many complaints, both from town and country taxpayers, of the burden of Municipal taxation.

Approximately half of the taxes collected in towns, cities, and municipal districts are for education. In Strathmore the cost per child per annum from five to six. In some country districts it is over $100 per child. Education is a necessity. Your children possibly do not realize it as much as you do, who are possibly struggling in a narrow, ill-defined, crowded, problem for which the world apparently has no solution at present.
